A more recent monument is the monster palace of communist dictator Ceaucescu, the second biggest building worldwide after the Pentagon. In the afternoon you drive to Sibiu (280 km).

Day 3: Sibiu

Founded by German settlers who called it Hermannstadt, Sibiu retains a medieval feel to this day. You better should not try it out. Time at leisure in the afternoon.

Today continue to the 13th-century Saxon city of Brasov, called Kronstadt by its German founders (120 km). The old city around the Black Church is an intact medieval town picture.
