

Southern Italy

Naples & Gulf of Sorrento

- Naples, the island of Capri, Pompeji and the Amalfitana
- 7 days / 6 nights
- Activities to do, hiking to Mount Vesuvius, visit of a lemon farm

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Naples

Individual arrive in Naples during the day and individual Transfer to your hotel in the lovely village of Vico Equense takes less than an hour (see description below).

Overnight: Vico Equense

Day 2: Pompeji

A local train takes us right into the past. The Roman provincial town of Pompeji has been destroyed by an outbreak of Mount Vesuvius almost 2000 years ago. It gives us a unique example of the life-style of the Romans and at the same time we feel the panic of the inhabitants when the disaster came.

Day 3: Excursion to Capri

Again the Small Train will take you to Sorrento. Here you can take a Hydrofoil to island of Capri which is just a stone's throw away from the coast. Its natural beauty has been highly estimated by Roman emperors and the high society of our days. Discover the island by foot or take a boat ride to the iconic Blue Grotto.

Day 4: Excursion to Naples

The local train takes us right into the center of Naples. Monumental palaces and churches are witnesses of its changeful history. Discover the charm of the place in the narrow alleys of the Old City which has been appointed a world heritage by the UNESCO.

Day 5: Mount Vesuvius or Sorrento

Mount Vesuvius dominates the skyline of Naples and surrounding, it stands some 1200 meters tall. If you take the challenge, a day hike to the peak is extremely rewarding. You will not only discover the crater which is still active but also enjoy a breathtaking round view from the peak. If you are more interested in local life, you take the train to Sorrento and visit a lemon farm.

Day 6: Amalfitana

The best comes last: The coastline of Amalfi is probably the most beautiful landscape of Italy. High cliffs separating secluded coves, and romantic fishing villages seam the coastline. Robert de Niro, Brad Pitt and Matt Damon have found refuge here.

Day 7: Departure from Naples

Depending on your flight times transfer to the airport for your departure flight.

Transport in the Region

The coastline of the Golf de Sorrento is equipped with a Trainline which makes Travelling easy. From the station in Vico Equense you reach Naples, Sorrento and Pompeii easily. For the Arrival and Departure Transfer, as well as the days with Vesuv and Amalfi Coast we recommend to get a car arrangement.
